

Box Beam Level, 3 Vial, 72-Inch

Klein Tools' Box Beam Levels are precision-engineered with a robust aluminum frame, delivering exceptional accuracy in leveling and plumbing. Combining high-quality construction with advanced machining, these levels provide reliable, precise results, making them an essential tool for professionals demanding perfect layout and alignment.

Specifications

|                   |                                                        |                 |                                  |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|----------------------------------|
| Type:             | Box Beam Bubble Level                                  | Application:    | Leveling and Plumbing, Alignment |
| Special Features: | High-Visibility Orange Body, Removable Rubber End Caps | Material:       | Aluminum                         |
| Finish:           | Powder Coating                                         | Accuracy:       | +/- 0.029° or 0.5mm/m            |
| Number of Vials:  | 3                                                      | Type of Vials:  | Clear Acrylic                    |
| Top Read:         | Yes                                                    | Vial Material:  | Mineral Spirits                  |
| Drop Protection:  | 6.6' (2 m)                                             | Case Included:  | No                               |
| Overall Length:   | 72" (182.9 cm)                                         | Overall Height: | 1.25" (3.2 cm)                   |
| Overall Width:    | 2.63" (6.7 cm)                                         | Weight:         | 4.07 lb (1.8 kg)                 |